The Islander

DAILY COLONIST MAGAZINE

VICTORIA, B.C., SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1959

Know what they are? Millmen call these ventilator-type blowers "cyclones." They are part of the equipment for drying and moving sawdust at the B.C. Forest Products plant here, used in the manufacture of sawdust logs. Like the butcher, lumbermen use everything but the squeek, so to speak. Waste is abhorred by the industry.